Ulster Society of Women Artists 2025 Spring Show

3 May - 14 June

Founded in 1957 by Gladys Maccabe, the Ulster Society of Women Artists (USWA) champions women in the visual arts. This Spring, we host an exclusive exhibition featuring USWA diploma holders and prize winners from their annual Belfast Gaol showcase. A celebration of artistic excellence!

➤ “a lovely community space.”

International Refugee Week

21 June - 30 June

Exhibition Launch: Saturday 21 June | Free Admission |

Music and dance performance

Workshop: Saturday 21 June | 10.30-11:15am OR 11.30am-12:15pm

Free arpillera doll workshops for children 8-12yrs | Booking essential

See page 15 for more information

This special exhibition marks International Refugee Week 2025 and features eight remarkable embroideries from different parts of the world displayed for the first time and recently donated to Causeway Coast and Glens Museum Service by Roberta Bacic - Conflict Textiles' curator. The exhibition also includes eleven other arpilleras – from the Museum Service Collection and the Conflict Textiles Collection.

These beautiful & powerful textile works are created by communities in response to conflict in their home countries. From intricate stitching and handmade dolls to colourful embroidery, each arpillera tells a powerful story of resilience, joy, and beauty amidst conflict.

Puffin Rock Habitats

5 July - 6 September

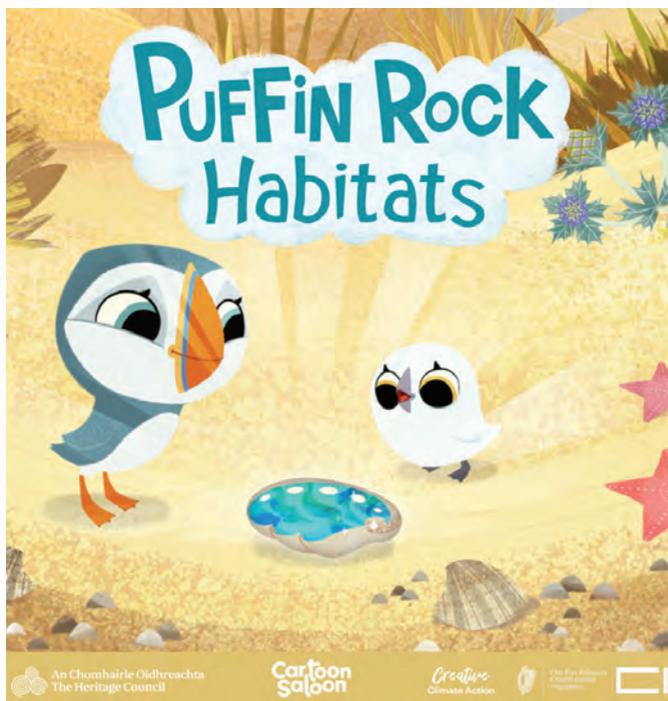

Exhibition Launch: Saturday 5 July at 12noon | Free Admission

Workshop: Saturday 5 July | 10.30am-12noon |

Free workshop for children 8-12yrs | Booking essential

See page 15 for more information.

Based on Cartoon Saloon's much loved and international hit Puffin Rock series, this exhibition will inspire a sense of wonder and improve "nature literacy" among families with young children. Through characters including young puffins Oona and Baba, Marvin the otter and Bernie the hermit crab, audiences are invited to listen to underwater communications, observe the rhythm of changes in tidal areas, learn about the role of pollinators in grasslands and explore the composition of wetlands. Created by multi-OSCAR® nominated animation studio Cartoon Saloon with funding from Creative Ireland's Creative Climate Action Fund, this is a family must-see!

and creative exhibition.”*

Red Sails Festival 2025

Shifting Tides | A New View of Portstewart

21 July - 23 August

Exhibition Launch: Monday 21 July | 12.30pm | Free Admission

An exhibition of artworks that take a new and unique view of Portstewart. While you can't beat a sunset scene of the harbour or a gorgeous shot of Portstewart Strand, this community display challenged entrants to try and see Portstewart with fresh eyes, exploring the unseen or uncelebrated parts of our gorgeous town.

The Red Sails Committee will be accepting submissions for this community exhibition from 26 May until 27 June. Successful applicants will be informed by 4 July. Full information is available on our website or by calling 028 7083 1400.

MUSIC

This event is cabaret style & BYOB

The Bridge is Cuba's most internationally acclaimed guitar duo, featuring the legendary Eduardo Martín and virtuoso Ahmed Dickinson. Blending classical styles with Cuban rhythms, jazz, flamenco, and rock, their performances are both exhilarating and deeply expressive. The duo's seamless musical connection bridges generations and cultures, offering a rare and captivating experience. Performing Martín's most compelling compositions, their collaboration celebrates Cuban heritage and pure artistry. Since their debut in 2014, The Bridge has enchanted audiences worldwide with intricate, rhythmic, and heartfelt guitar interpretations that transcend time and genre

Out of the Silence

Thursday 22 May | 7.15pm (Doors 7pm)

Free Event | Booking essential

This event is in our auditorium with unreserved tiered seating

Join writer Anne McMaster and Dr Dayna Jost, Development Officer for the Ulster-Scots Community Network, for a special screening of 'Out Of The Silence' followed by a Q&A. In the film, produced by DoubleBand Films, Anne explores how women's writing in Ulster has moved from the margins into the mainstream – through an Ulster-Scots lens, uncovering unsung literary heroines and exploring the literary imaginations of Northern Ireland's new generation of female writers.

Out of the Silence is a production for BBC Northern Ireland in conjunction with the Ulster-Scots Broadcast Fund.

Duration 60 mins

Janey Mac is Hot

(Blame The Hormones)

Friday 30 May | 8pm (Doors 7.30pm)

Tickets £12 full, £10 concession | 18+ years

This event is cabaret style & BYOB

Get ready for a one-night-only, completely improvised comedy show where perimenopausal angst meets audience-fuelled chaos! Janey Mac fearlessly crafts theatre on the spot, blending razor-sharp wit with pure craic. Premiering at Tinderbox Theatre's sell-out Incubate Festival in Belfast, audiences raved, "So funny, I properly cry-laughed!" A seasoned improviser and stand-up, Janey honed her craft in London and Chicago before returning to Northern Ireland's comedy scene. Don't miss this hilarious, unfiltered take on ageing, hormones, and the madness in between!
