On Growing Old

Harry McMahon

13 September - 25 October

Exhibition Launch | Saturday 13 September, 12noon. All welcome

'I started growing old on Tuesday 26 May 1937. I started feeling old on Friday 26 May 2023' – H McMahon

Featuring selected art from seven groups spanning the timeline of his work, Harry explores the growth and creative development of an artist over time. Emeritus Professor Harry McMahon taught at Ulster University. He began painting in 1979 and eventually undertook a degree in Fine and Applied Arts, graduating in 2006. In his practice, Harry pursues landscape painting and exploring humankind's use of science and mathematics to impose order on chaos. Harry continues to be a passionate advocate of fine arts and creativity in the Causeway Coast and Glens area. The artist is donating all sales to Marie Curie in recognition of the care given to his wife Anne, and Harry, in the last months of her life.

'Turning Point' H McMahon

Notions | Emer Maguire

Friday 26 September | 8pm (Doors 7.30pm) |

Tickets £22 full, £20 concession

COMEDY

Emer Maguire is back with a new tour and joining us here on the glorious North Coast! With shows fuelled by powerful storytelling, devilish quick wit, and hilarious musical interludes, Emer has become a must-see star of comedy in Ireland. She has sold out stalwart venues such as the Ulster Hall, Mandela Hall, the Grand Opera House and The MAC to rave reviews, so if you're up for a fantastic night of 'laugh out loud' comedy, look no further!

➤ "Excellent event. Great to have the Director present to answer questions."

Stolen

Featuring an Introduction by and Q&A with Director Margo Harkin

Thursday 9 October | 7.15pm (Doors 7pm) | Tickets £8 full, £6 concession

2023 | Cert 12A | Duration (film only) 1 hr 47 mins

'Altogether, this is a nearly immaculate, exemplary piece of documentary film-making.' – The Guardian

Giving voice to those silenced for far too long, this acclaimed documentary tells the story of several survivors of mother and baby home institutions across Ireland. Featuring heartfelt personal testimonies from both the mothers and adult children who experienced the institutions, as well as the exploration of the societal and government contexts which granted their existence, this is an extremely powerful film.

➤ “Wonderful to have acts of this quality coming to Portstewart - Flowerfield is a great local venue.”

All About the Bones Tour | Chris Smither

LIVE
MUSIC

Saturday 18 October

8pm (Doors 7.30pm) | Tickets £23.50 full, £21 concession

‘Smither is an American original – a product of the musical melting pot and one of the absolute best singer-songwriters in the world.’ - Associated Press

A rare chance to catch an American legend on the North Coast for a guaranteed atmospheric night of sublime music. Chris Smither's 20th album release, All About the Bones, is as elemental as the inky black shadows cast by a shockingly bright moon. Featuring eight brand new songs by Chris and his renditions of Eliza Gilkyson's 'Calm Before the Storm' and Tom Petty's 'Time to Move On'. The audience is welcomed into some gothic mansion on an imaginary New Orleans street, and there in the lamplit parlour is the band, a minimalist skeleton crew.

➤ "The whole experience was so fun and novel."

Cinemagic present

Frightful Family Flick | Hotel Transylvania

Monday 27 October | 10.30am | Free event but advance booking essential |

Please bring a non-perishable food item donation for Causeway Foodbank

2012 | Cert PG | Duration 90 mins

Classic family film fun for Halloween. Count Dracula invites some of the most famous monsters to celebrate the 118th birthday of his beloved daughter Mavis, and naturally mayhem and mischief ensue! This screening is part of the Cinemagic initiative 'Young Audiences Supporting Foodbanks'.

Cult Chiller | The Fog

Thursday 30 October | 7.15pm (Doors 7pm) | Tickets £5 |

1980 | Cert 15 | Duration 1 hr 29 mins

Against the backdrop of spine-chilling stories of drowned mariners and shipwrecks, the peaceful coastal town of Antonio Bay prepares to celebrate its centennial. However, a strange fog rolls in from the sea, shrouding the seaside town and supernatural events begin to unfold. Creepy classic and cult favourite by renowned writer/director John Carpenter and starring Jamie Lee Curtis, Janet Leigh, Adrienne Barbeau and Hal Holbrook.

"Great venue, attentive staff, very enjoyable."

Halloween Haunted House

Friday 31 October | 2-4pm | Free Admission

Celebrate Halloween in fang-tastic style with frightfully good family fun.

Our annual Haunted House creaks open its eerie doors once again to welcome all fearless witches, wizards, ghosts and goblins. Step inside—if you dare—for an afternoon packed with ghoulish giggles and creative chaos.

Drop in for hands-on Halloween crafts: design your own trick-or-treat bag, mould creepy clay ghosties, conjure up spooky stick puppets and more. Then head to the auditorium for the monster disco, where skeletons shimmy and zombies groove to spine-tingling tunes.

Costumes are highly encouraged—whether you're a tiny pumpkin or a terrifying vampire, we want to see your scariest, silliest or most spellbinding look.

This is Halloween at its most creative and fun—don't miss it.

The Wild Robot

Tuesday 11 November | 10.30am |

2024 | Cert U | Duration 1 hr 42 mins

In this enchanting tale blending wildlife adventure and science fiction, a newly manufactured robot called Roz is shipwrecked on an island uninhabited by humans. Roz learns to communicate with creatures, learning survival skills and becoming an adoptive parent to an orphaned gosling. Based on an acclaimed children's book, this gorgeous animation explores what happens when nature and technology collide.

Small Things Like These

Tuesday 25 November | 10.30am |

2024 | Cert 12A | Duration 1 hr 38 mins

'It is a small story set in small town, pivoting on a small act of grace...but that is how big wrongs are addressed, with small things like these' – Sight and Sound.

Taking place at Christmas in 1985, devoted father and coal merchant Bill Furlong grapples with his town's complicity in the mistreatment of local women housed in a Magdalene Laundry and discovers shocking truths of his own. Adapted from the Booker Prize nominated novel by Claire Keegan, the film stars Cillian Murphy, Eileen Walsh and Emily Watson.

“Great music, intimate venue.”
